Dear Librarian,

When your Washington staff reporter, Ms Lacrisha Butler, interviewed me for her King assassination anniversary piece she promised to send me a copy.

Apparently she forgot.

I'll appreciate it if you would be kind enough to send me a copy as well as any other anniversary coverage.

My interest is not ego. It is archival.

When I am no longer in a position to use them and to make them available to others, all my work plus about 80,000 pages of once-withheld official records will be a public archive at local Hood College.

These records were the yield of a long-lasting and in some areas precedental FOIA lawsuits.

I report this in the event that in the future it may be of some usefulness to your paper.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
